

"We Brought Northern Pizza Down South."

The Segots lived in New Jersey most of their lives and loved walking into their favorite pizzeria to order a slice or two of good pizza.

When they moved to Tennessee, they missed Jersey-style pizza so much that they decided to bring it down here to the south. Slices of Jersey was born!

You won't find our pizza anywhere else—we start with a crispy crust with a soft inside, top it with a flavorful Marzano tomato sauce, and finish it off with gooey cheese that has that perfect pull. We want to share the unique taste of a Jersey pizza that cannot be compared. Come grab a slice or two and experience our Jersey-style pizza right here in downtown Rogersville.
